

INFOPACK

SeeDGreen (Sustainable Development Goals)

wants to be an opportunity for young people to discuss the topic and the methods through which to promote the principles of cultural change towards the circular economy. In addition to clarifying the key concepts related to the green revolution, the seminar wants to analyze the opportunities it can generate, in particular concerning green jobs.

The objectives of the SeeDGreen project are:

- increase the skills of youth workers;
- lay the foundations for future strategic collaboration, in particular, a partnership capable of developing new projects (youth exchanges, strategic partnerships, etc.);
- ideas and techniques for the creation of a game capable to offer orientation to young people in the choice of educational and a green jobs;
- give more impetus to innovation and sustainable economic growth by promoting mobility and cooperation.

The project provides mobility for a young worker/seminar which aims to contribute to promoting the Green New Deal objectives. The project will take place in Altamura (Bari) from July 27th to September 1st.

The total amount number of participants will be 24, three participants per organization. The participants are youth workers/educators/volunteers who work within the associations, who have gained experience in the field of environmental education and career guidance, interested in activating paths that favour the transition to an eco-sustainable economy.

HOSTING

The project will be hosted at "La fiorita" hostel. La fiorita is a farm far a few kilometers from Altamura and Matera. The organization will provide local transport. There is no need to bring sheets or towels.
