

CONNECTION WITHIN YOU (TH)

TRAINING COURSE IN LATVIA

3.04.-11.04.

CONNECTION WITHIN YOU(TH)

is aiming at creating the premises for exploring and embodying a deep sense of connection to oneself and the natural world around us.

Connection within You(th) a 7 day training course bringing 24 people together in the forests of Latvia. This training course is developed for youth workers, human-workers, to give them the chance to experience and learn about the ways how we can listen better, hear more and learn through and from nature.

ABOUT THE PROJECT:

Project is organized by AANF (LV), working together with two trainers from Romania - Sandra Horea (Actions for Change) and Bogdan Romanica (Dreams for Life).

The main aim of this training course is to develop the resources and competencies of people who work with other people, especially youth, in the fields of personal transformation by exploring and learning a wide variety of concepts and practices such as mentoring, art of listening, nature based learning, storytelling and dream work. We will attempt to tackle and look closer to the existential crises - the loss of meaning and purpose in life, the so called 'youth disconnection' due to the loss of genuine models. Afterwards we intend to move outwards and look at the global environmental crises affecting humans, fauna and flora of earth and threatening the future of our planet.

ABOUT THE WAY WE WORK

The methods used during the training will be based on non-formal education and experiential learning and include:

- exploration of the innate human resources
- creative expression (storytelling, movement, authentic writing, music, arts)
- connection with nature
- deepening questions, mirroring, tracking the individual personal stories unfold
- holistic education, soul-based work
- rituals and practices based on wisdom of native cultures
- somatic and embodied learning

Entering the realm of experience

The participation in this training requires a preparation phase. Those who will be accepted in the training should follow an online learning process (reading different materials, articles, watching videos) related to the topic of the training.

The participants will receive several suggestions for personal work before coming to the program (e.g. journaling on certain questions, self-time in nature and several other invitations).

Applying to this program requires also the commitment to follow the preparation process.

Soul-based work

During the training we wish to create profound experiences. Knowledge, information and facts are very important and will be provided within the training, but what moves us, what drives us to create a long-lasting impact in our field of activity is the joined elements of both intellectual understanding and deep experience processes that unlock the personal wisdom and deep knowing.

Art-based and ritual-based work

We'll explore the landscape of the psyche through a variety of art practices, including creative expression, self-designed ceremony, solo exercises while wandering on the land, group work, embodiment, movement, voice dialogue, journaling, singing and deep imagery work.

A vision with a task

After the training course we want to pay special attention to the dissemination activities, which will contribute to a learning journey and inner growth of youth work. This phase will be as important as the training itself. We want to create a powerful impact through our project. As a continuation of the experience each participant will have to implement at least one ACTION in their own community.
