Please briefly present your organisation/group (e.g. its type, scope of work, areas of activity and if applicable, approximate number of paid/unpaid staff , learners and members of the group).

WeSound is a non profit organization based in the province of Torino (Italy). Its members gathered in October 2019, they started cooperating together, creating local activities and workshops as a non formal group of young people and, after having coordinated and implemented their first international mobility in July 2021, they decided to register as a non profit organization in January 2022, in order to create new opportunities for their target groups not just at local, but also at national and international level.

The aim of the organization is to inspire and empower young people to create connections with themselves, the others, the community and the world; foster social inclusion, active participation and solidarity among young people coming from different backgrounds and facing different challenges.

The group is very experienced in working with youth especially in the field of non formal education and experiential learning, each member has a particular background that enriches the competences and professionalism of the team, which can count on different profiles such as:

Matteo Bolle: youth worker, project designer and certified spotify composer;

Davide Peirola: city councilor of the town of Bussoleno, responsible of youth policies;

Umberto Angelone: musician, certified spotify composer and content maker;

Lorena Chamorro Giraldez: linguist, non formal trainer;

Saul Nebot: environmental educator, responsible of international relationships;

Pietro Pontillo: web designer, accountant;

Paola Balduzzi: environmental architect, project manager.

The activities that the organization carries out are based on non formal education methods and involve young people coming from different backgrounds; many youngsters are unemployed and struggle to find a direction with their lives, others are coming from rural areas such as living in Valle Susa, having less opportunities to be surrounded in an international environment.

Through international and local projects, the organization works with the following topic: Art and especially music as a way to foster self-expression and social inclusion, raising awareness on sustainability practices and outdoor education, wellness and mental health, and coaching techniques for international groups.

What are the activities and experience of your organisation in the areas relevant for this project?
What are the skills and/or expertise of key persons involved in this project?

The members of the organization have years of experience in non formal education, both as participants in youth exchanges and training courses, coordinator and facilitators of youth projects, mainly in the field of personal and professional growth, sustainability and social inclusion through arts.

The goals of WeSound can be classified into three groups:

- Promote local, European and global cooperation between young people, organizations and communities through events, meetings and workshops;
- Inspire dialogue and intercultural exchange through non-formal methods;
- Encourage young people to actively communicate and keep in touch, create strong bonds with each other and promote positive change-making in their realities.

The persons involved in this project are specialized in coaching techniques for the facilitation of international group, non formal education methods such as experiential learning, learning by doing through creativity; with a specialization in arts methods to facilitate social inclusion.

They will contribute to the project by developing workshops and sharing tools for the work with youth. They also have knowledge about outdoors methods such as activities to connect with nature, team buildings and trust based methods working in connection with the environment.

Please give information on the key staff/persons involved in this application and on the competences and previous experience that they will bring to the project.

The main members involved in this project are:

-Matteo Bolle, non-formal designer, coordinator and trainer Erasmus +, youth leader and educator, in particularly regarding coaching methods for international groups, musician and certified Spotify composer. Coordination of more than 20 mobilities mainly on facilitation and coaching techniques, mindfulness sustainability awareness and social inclusion through music.

Matteo's goal is to contribute to a reality where young people can connect with themselves and the others, creating authentic bonds and expressing themselves fully without judgements and conditionings.

-Davide Peirolo, city councilor of the town of Bussoleno, responsible for youth policies, background in history of law and psychopedagogy.

Davide has years of experience working in schools with young people and is specialized in conflicts resolutions, developing non-formal content in this topic.

His goal is to bring the youth work dimension and apply his experience in the field of non formal education also in the school where he collaborates and in the youth department of his town.
