Summary of the project

SESKAD will organize an Erasmus+ KA220 Youth project to increase quality on volunteerism after disaster, post-disaster support and T-kit for volunteers in youth field. It will take place in Sivas, Turkey “between” 03-08 November 2023. This mobility aims to design an educational package for volunteers who want to help disaster victims. The package will focus on promoting connections between youth workers and youth leaders who work or study in the areas of volunteering and disaster relief. It will be specifically designed for young people who are involved in or interested in working on issues related to volunteering and helping disaster victims. Also, it aims to get to know each other, sharing experiences, building future collaborations, and to develop ideas for new youth projects.

Global aim

Our goal is to encourage collaboration and establish partnerships through the Erasmus+ Youth program with a focus on volunteerism for aftercare and conscious support for disaster victims.

Objectives

- Contact with the people, getting into the group, introducing the organizations.
- To profit the presence of different organizations, to develop ideas for new youth projects within the Erasmus+ Youth Program.

- Been introduced to the reality of each other on personal, professional and cultural level
- To understand differences of identity, culture, diversity and cultural diversity by relationship to nature.
- To offer the opportunity to meet partner groups and develop concrete ideas for future projects focusing on volunteerism for aftercare and conscious support for disaster victims.
- To create atmosphere of common understanding between people representing different cultures, working styles, studies etc.
- To be aware of importance of ecology and ecopolitics in local, regional and international level
- To develop skills and attitudes.

Methodology

There will be different methodologies used during the youth workers mobility, such as workshops, simulations, presentations, and exchange of experiences and sharing best practices on the context of experiential learning.
